You don't have to go to Japan to see great Japanese art. Now through May 8 some of the finest examples of Japanese painting in the world are on view at The Cleveland Museum of Art in the exhibition, Japanese Screens from the Museum and Cleveland Collections. Peaceful landscapes, colorful Japanese festivals, and a rich variety of flowers and animals are depicted on beautifully preserved screens dating from the 15th to the 19th century. Handsomely installed, Japanese Screens is a show no art lover will want to miss.
